Savanna Energy Services Corp. Elects New Board

At the Annual General Meeting of Savanna Energy Services Corp. (“Savanna” or the “Corporation”) held yesterday, May 28, 2009, shareholders elected the following individuals as directors of the Corporation:

James Saunders – Chairman (President & CEO, Twin Butte Energy Ltd.)
John Hooks (Chairman, President & CEO, Phoenix Technology Income Fund)
Kevin Nugent (President, Livingstone Energy Management Ltd.)
Tor Wilson (President & CEO, Badger Income Fund)
Ken Mullen (President & CEO of the Corporation)

Prior to the Annual General Meeting, Victor Buffalo advised the Corporation that he would not stand for re-election. This decision was based on Mr. Buffalo’s personal circumstances, including his extensive involvement in the Canadian Aboriginal community as a whole, as well as a number of business ventures he has recently become actively involved in. Mr. Buffalo has agreed to act as a special advisor to the Corporation in respect of its Aboriginal relationships, and to continue assisting the Corporation in expanding its Aboriginal partnership model both in Canada and internationally. The Corporation is thankful for Mr. Buffalo’s services as a director, and looks forward to its continuing association with him as an advisor.

Savanna is a leading North American contract drilling and oilfield services company providing a broad range of drilling, well servicing and related services with a focus on fit for purpose technologies for the North American market and industry-leading aboriginal relationships.
