Confidentiality Disclosure

- 1. I acknowledge that my employment with Savanna Drilling Corp. ("Savanna") and its subsidiaries permits me access to trade secrets, knowledge, files, marketing information, pricing and information about the Company that is confidential ("Confidential Information"). I also acknowledge that as an employee of Savanna, I operate in a position of trust and have a fiduciary relationship with the Company. Based on my terms of employment, I agree not to disclose to anyone outside Savanna, any Confidential Information. I also agree that all Confidential Information acquired or disclosed to me by Savanna or any affiliate or related companies, or their corporate share holders, officers, directors, servants or agents relating to the processes, practices, methods, products, inventions, marketing plans, improvements, developments, suppliers, customers, trade secrets, technical designs, internal organization, personnel or finances of Savanna shall be held in strict confidence. I will not disclose any Confidential Information for my personal benefit or for the benefit of any other person, firm or corporation outside Savanna.
- 2. I agree that all Confidential Information including notes, memoranda, records, (electronic or otherwise) and writings made by me in respect of the business of Savanna shall be and remain the property of the Company and shall be delivered by me to Savanna forthwith upon reguest and upon cessation of my employment.
- 3. I agree that all worldwide rights, title and interest in all inventions, designs, drawings, patent and copyright works (including computer programs), trade secrets, discoveries, know-how and other intellectual property (whether registered or not) produced, made, composed, written, performed or designed by me, either alone or jointly with others, in the course of my employment with Savanna and in any way related to the business of Savanna, shall vest in and be the exclusive property of Savanna.
- 4. I agree both during and following the termination of my employment with Savanna, to fully and promptly disclose to the Company, complete details of any invention, discovery, design or other intellectual property developed during my employment, with the intention that Savanna shall have full knowledge of the working and practical application of such rights and, at the expense of Savanna, I agree to co-operate in executing all necessary deeds and documents and all such other acts and things as may reasonably be required to vest such rights in the Company.
- 5. I acknowledge and agree that during my employment with Savanna, either as employee or consultant, I will be encouraged to maintain working relationships with the Company's clients and suppliers, and that:

Confidentiality Disclosure

- a. The transfer of confidential knowledge of Savanna's affairs to a client or supplier would be detrimental to the Company's interests; and
- b. Knowledge of the Company's affairs as well as knowledge of its clients and suppliers could irreparably damage the Company's interests if made available to a competitor or if used for competitive purposes.

Accordingly, I agree that I will not enter into or participate, directly or indirectly, in any business, which may conflict with technologies developed or being developed by Savanna during my period of employment or engagement as a consultant with Savanna.

Fill out this form only if you are an employee working in Alberta or a pensioner residing in Alberta and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1AB, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1AB for 2019, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1AB, check this box, enter "0" on line 12 and do not fill in lines 2 to 11.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 12. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, fill in "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.

Filling out Form TD1

Fill out this form only if any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to claim the deduction for living in a prescribed zone
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1 for 2019, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1, check this box, enter "0" on line 13 and do not fill in lines 2 to 12.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 13. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Non-residents (Only fill in if you are a non-resident of Canada.)

As a non-resident of Canada, will 90% or more of your world income be included in determining your taxable income earned in Canada in 2019?

Yes (Fill out the previous page.)

No (Enter "0" on line 13, and do not fill in lines 2 to 12 as you are not entitled to the personal tax credits.)

If you are unsure of your residency status, call the international tax and non-resident enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281.

Provincial or territorial personal tax credits return

If your claim amount on line 13 is more than $12,069, you also have to fill out a provincial or territorial TD1 form. If you are an employee, use the Form TD1 for your province or territory of employment. If you are a pensioner, use the Form TD1 for your province or territory of residence. Your employer or payer will use both this federal form and your most recent provincial or territorial Form TD1 to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

If you are claiming the basic personal amount only (your claim amount on line 13 is $12,069,), your employer or payer will deduct provincial or territorial taxes after allowing the provincial or territorial basic personal amount.

Note: If you are a Saskatchewan resident supporting children under 18 at any time during 2019, you may be able to claim the child amount on Form TD1SK, 2019 Saskatchewan Personal Tax Credits Return. Therefore, you may want to fill out Form TD1SK even if you are only claiming the basic personal amount on this form.

Deduction for living in a prescribed zone

If you live in the Northwest Territories, Nunavut, Yukon, or another prescribed northern zone for more than six months in a row beginning or ending in 2019, you can claim any of the following:

- $11.00 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone
- $22.00 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone if, during that time, you live in a dwelling that you maintain, and you are the only person living in that dwelling who is claiming this deduction

Employees living in a prescribed intermediate zone can claim 50% of the total of the above amounts.

For more information, go to  ${\it canada.ca/taxes-northern-residents}.$

Additional tax to be deducted

You may want to have more tax deducted from each payment, especially if you receive other income, including non-employment income such as CPP or QPP benefits, or old age security pension. By doing this, you may not have to pay as much tax when you file your income tax return. To choose this option, state the amount of additional tax you want to have deducted from each payment. To change this deduction later, fill out a new Form TD1.

$

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.

Personal information is collected under the Income Tax Act to administer tax, benefits, and related programs. It may also be used for any purpose related to the enforcement of the Act such as audit, compliance and collection activities. It may be shared or verified with other federal, provincial, territorial or foreign government institutions to the extent authorized by law.
